

Please read this. I am disgusted with Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to use the public airwaves of "we the people" to foist political propaganda that is good for the corporate bottom line on us. How dare they!

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for their corporate bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy. Sinclair obviously sneers with disdain at the citizens of this nation who allow them to get money through the use of our airwaves.

I wish to protest the renewal of their broadcast license!

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
